Witness the history of rock

Bar 190 is best known as the location for the launch and photoshoot for The Rolling Stones' 1968 album Beggars Banquet, and the decor pays tribute to this event.

The young Stones were regulars at the bar, which was one of the most popular meeting places in the area. Its central location and its cosy, carefree atmosphere inspired them to hold their exceptional album launch party here.

The walls feature memorabilia associated with this great event: photos of Mick Jagger and Keith Richards, the gold LP and the recipe for the cocktail named after the album that made the bar so famous.

Bar 190 serves an extensive range of spirits, with notably large collections of whiskies and rums. The creative cocktail list takes full advantage of this huge variety, extending from classics – such as Martini and Negroni – to a range of gin and tonics based on botanical and citrus infusions.

The bar menu offers a selection of mouth-watering small dishes.
