Destination

With its multifaceted appeal, Paris has always drawn writers, artists and personalities renown internationally. When you climb the 1,792 steps of the Eiffel Tower, the structure of the metropolis gradually reveals itself, with the 20 arrondissements spiraling out clockwise from the center to the outskirts. Don't miss the Champs Elysées or the breathtaking Notre Dame, the Louvre Museum or the fascinating Pompidou Center, the Opéra or the elegant Place Vendôme, a favorite shopping destination.

CASTILLE PARIS

*Parisian allure,
Italian style*

Parisian haute couture and Italian elegance come together in the iconic Castille. Standing next to the legendary "Maison Chanel" in the heart of the 1st arrondissement, this luxury 5-star hotel has been restored to its 18th-century splendour. Sheer quality shines through in every detail, from the period artworks and antiques to the elegant Florentine patio and Roman fountain, from the spacious suites to the bar, with its effortless chic.

Dining

At Castille, you can relax in the warm, welcoming atmosphere of the L'Assaggio restaurant or bar.

The menu, conceived by Ugo Alciati and created by L'Assaggio's Executive Chef Pablo Sabariego and his team, is a compendium of traditional gourmet culture, where Piedmontese specialities are interpreted with characteristic flair.
