SAVOIA EXCELSIOR PALACE
TRIESTE

Destination

The beauty and majesty of Trieste speak eloquently of its eclectic soul rich in history and experiences to savour. The city offers a unique journey among art galleries, imperial architecture and old Austro-Hungarian cafés. Many points of interest can be reached on foot such as Teatro Verdi, Major Museums, Art Galleries and Eataly. Just along the coast stands the romantic Miramare Castle, with its park cascading down to the sea. The beautiful Grotta Gigante and Faro della Vittoria are just few Km away.

Majestic allure in Trieste

The Savoia Excelsior Palace is a hotel of timeless charm that immediately evokes all the Mitteleuropean splendor. It is not a coincidence that, when it opened in 1911, it was acclaimed as “the most important and luxurious hotel in the Austro-Hungarian Empire”. A towering presence on the historic seafront, with an impressive white façade gazing over the endless view of the Gulf of Trieste, the hotel makes an unforgettable first impression. But inside is where the magic really begins.

Meeting & Events

The Savoia Excelsior Palace is also the ideal setting for private events and for business meetings and conferences. The hotel's conference center offers 9 spacious rooms accommodating up to 320 people. All the rooms are well lit by large windows that let natural light flood in. They are also elegantly decorated with frescoed ceilings, refined boiserie, and impressive antique chandeliers. For high-level meetings that demand the utmost discretion, we also have several private rooms of a more intimate size.
